Tea Offering to Vajrayoginī

[This tea offering can be done before drinking your daily tea or coffee or in a more elaborate way with a proper tea offering set. Ask your teacher for further clarification about this practice.]

OM AH HUM

As I visualize myself as the deity
At the center of the dharmachakra,
Extremely red within a
Double tetrahedral reality source,
On a stainless moon mandala seat
Resides the all-encompassing refuge assembly of guru-deities.

In a beautifully shaped container filled with the essences of ingredients
Made from precious celestial substances, this vast drink, delicious in taste,
Reddish yellow in color, with the scent of camphor,
I offer to the assembly of father, root, and lineage gurus.
Please bless my three doors.

I offer to the assembly of powerful mother yoginis.
Please lead me to the field of Khachö pure land.

I offer to the assembly of peaceful and wrathful mind-sealed deities.
Please bestow all the supreme and general attainments.

I offer to the objects of refuge, the Three Rare Sublime Ones.
Please protect me from the fearful enemies of samsara and nirvana's peace.

I offer to the assembly of supporters, dakinis, and Dharma protectors.
Please actualize all activities, whatever is wished for.

I offer to the assembly of siblings, the six types of transmigratory beings.
Please pacify the suffering of my mind's hallucinated appearances.

Clarifying myself as the mind-sealed deity, which appears while empty,
And enjoying the food, with the taste of nectar,
My mind enters into the sphere of great bliss and emptiness.

EH MA HO!

How eminently fortunate I am!
